

Special Event

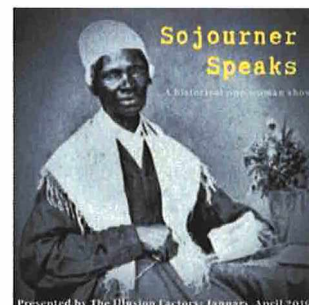

Families
welcome!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 7 • 6:30 - 7:30 PM

Meet Hannah Peake, Cleveland's first African American settler! She will tell us about how she and her husband crossed the Cuyahoga River in 1809 and were the first travelers on the Cleveland/Rockport Road. Presented by Women in History Ohio.

SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 9 • 2 - 3 PM

The Illusion Factory Presents "Sojourner Speaks", an ORIGINAL one-woman show about the famous abolitionist Sojourner Truth. History comes to life as students learn about one of the figures who put Akron, OH on the map!

THURSDAY, FEBRUARY 28 • 6:30 - 7:30 PM

Listen to "Stagecoach" Mary Fields as she recounts her early life working for a Catholic convent in Toledo, OH, then traveling West to Montana where she became a U.S. Mail Coach driver with pistol and mule by her side. Presented by Women in History Ohio.

Each program requires separate registration. Call 330-425-4268 or visit the online Events calendar.

From time to time, photos will be taken of patrons attending Twinsburg Public Library events. We reserve the right to use these photos for communication, promotional, and marketing purposes.
