

(open) Good Morning! Today is Wednesday, March 13th I'm _____ and I'm _____. Now here's your THS News!

(3/12-3/20) The countdown is on! Senior Experience applications are due at the end of the day, Wednesday, March 20th. Don't miss out! See adviser Mrs. Houston with any questions.

(3/12-3/14) THS Drama Club is putting on their production of "You Can't Take It With You" Thursday through Saturday this week. The Sycamores are an eccentric and unusual family. When Alice Sycamore, the most "normal" child of their family, falls for her boss's son, Tony, a handsome scion of Wall Street, she fears that their two families—so unlike in manner, politics, and finances—will never come together. During a disastrous dinner party, Alice's worst fears are confirmed. Tickets are sold on hometown ticketing, or at the door (cash only). We hope to see you there!

(3/12-3/15) Attention Seniors, the THS Local Scholarships webpage is live! It with more than 40 scholarships listed that will all be awarded to Twinsburg High School Seniors! There are scholarships to use toward trade schools, 2 year and 4 year degrees. Scholarships are $500, $1000, $2000, $2500 and one scholarship for $3500. The link is on the 2024 Google Classroom. See Mrs. Bennett if you have any questions.

(3/11-3/14) All Exploration of Black Voices in Literature classes are partnering with the Keep Off the Streets Foundation in Ghana, to bridge the gap between students globally and raise awareness of the needs in their school across the seas. These Ghana students courageously pursue education in ways many here may take for granted and the Black Lit students want your help to help them continue. They're hosting an all-day school breakfast fundraiser March 22nd. Students and teachers who donate are welcome. Students can come down with their donation AND teacher approval or as a class with their teachers to the festivities in the gym blocks 1,2, and 4. All students can pop in throughout their lunches and are encouraged to donate, or just to enjoy the local griots, specially selected games and activities, and delicious breakfast-themed treats while finding out about this student-designed and student-led project. Thank you for helping make a difference in Ghana students' lives

(3/11-3/14) Twinsburg Schools, in collaboration with the National Inventors Hall of Fame, offers an innovative STEM summer program, Camp Invention, at Bissell June 10th to 14th. Campers are grades K-6, the program includes high school Volunteer Leadership Interns as part of the Program Team. Interns play a vital role mentoring participants and helping them problem-solve. Interns receive 40 service hours, specialized training in Leadership and Intellectual Property, and a letter of recognition from the United States Patent and Trademark Office for college and scholarship applications. For info or to apply contact Drina Jolly at djolly@twinsburgcsd.org.

That's all for today. Thanks to the Motion Graphics classes we will run St. Patrick's graphics all week. Remember to tune in every school day by 11:10 for YOUR THS News! Thanks for watching and have a great day!
